About this release

Inpatient, Day Case and New Outpatient Stage of Treatment
Diagnostic Tests and Investigations
18 weeks Referral to Treatment

Local figures have been provided by NHS Tayside and NHS Ayrshire and Arran to inform the Inpatient, Day Case and New Outpatient Stage of Treatment publication. For 18 Weeks Referral to Treatment (RTT) NHS Ayrshire and Arran has provided local figures; NHS Tayside was unable to provide data. For these reasons no comparisons with previous quarters have been provided - see main reports for more details.

Main Points
- 80.4% of patients were seen within the 12 week Treatment Time Guarantee (inpatients and day cases) for quarter ending 31 December 2017.
70.1% of patients waiting for a new outpatient appointment at 31 December 2017 had been waiting 12 weeks or less.

82.5% of patients were seen within the 18 Week Referral to Treatment standard during month ending 31 December 2017.

79.3% of patients waiting for a key diagnostic test at 31 December 2017 had been waiting less than six weeks. This compares to 81.6% at 30 September 2017 and 86.1% at 31 December 2016.

Background
The 18 Weeks RTT standard applies to the entire patient journey from the initial referral to the start of treatment. The 18weeks RTT performance is dependent on the stage of treatment standards for Diagnostic Tests, New Outpatient Appointments, Day Case and Inpatient Treatment. Documents relating to waiting times, including the Treatment Time Guarantee are:

- The Patient Rights (Scotland) Act 2011.
- The Regulations and Directions under the Act - CEL 17 (2012).
- The Regulations (Amended) under the Act - Amendment Regulations (2014)
